

INSTITUTE OF DEVELOPMENT STUDIES KOLKATA

Applications are invited for the following faculty positions:

- (i) Professor: An eminent scholar holding a PhD in any branch of social science with evidence of high quality published work in areas relevant to development studies and at least ten years of research/teaching experience in research institutes/ universities/ colleges, at least five years of which must be in a position of Associate Professor or above. Experiences of guiding doctoral research and handling externally funded research projects are desirable.
- (ii) Associate Professor: PhD in Economics/ Statistics/ Demography/ Population Studies with high quality published work in Population Studies/ Public Health and at least eight years of research experience in an academic position equivalent to Assistant Professor; experiences of conducting field surveys and handling externally funded research projects is desirable.
- (iii) Assistant Professor: PhD (awarded or submitted) in Political Science/ Sociology/ History/ Economics with excellent academic record and at least two high quality published papers in areas relevant to development studies; must have cleared NET/SLET as per UGC norm.

Age limit for (i) and (ii) is 55 years, and 40 years for (iii). Pay and allowances are in accordance with the state-aided universities of West Bengal with some differences in superannuation benefits. Appointments may be made on contractual or regular basis. Selection for (i) shall not be confined to only those who apply. Applications with full curriculum vitae (providing names and contacts of two referees) and copies of two published papers may be sent by post to The Director, Institute of Development Studies Kolkata, DD 27/D Salt Lake, Kolkata-700064 and by e-mail to idsk@idskmail.com before 26 August, 2016.