

Three-day National Conference on
Examining Gendered Violence in India

Organised by
Institute of Development Studies Kolkata

Date: 24-26 February 2021

Programme

24 February 2021

3:00-3:15 Welcome Address and introductions

3:15-4:15 Keynote lecture

Tanika Sarkar (JNU)

Public Burnings : Aspects of The Sati in Early 19th Century Bengal

4:15-5:30

Academic Session I

Understanding gendered violence in non-domestic sites

Nonica Datta (JNU)

Family Traumas, Lost Testimonies and Partition Violence

Aparna Lolayeker (Goa University)

District-Level Analysis of Crime Against Women in India

25 February 2021

3:00-4:00

Special Lecture 1

Ashwini Deshpande (Asoka University)

Examining gender inequalities in times of Covid-19

4:00-5:30

Academic Session II

Understanding gendered violence in domestic spaces

Simantini Mukhopadhyay (IDSK)

Abused but 'Not insulted': Understanding Intersectionality in Symbolic Violence

Nandini Ghosh &

Supurna Banerjee (IDSK)

Mapping marginalities in domestic violence laws

26 February 2021

3:00-4:00

Special Lecture 2

Padmini Swaminathan
(Independent researcher)

Revisiting Violence of Development: Why Gender Matters

4:00-5:30

Panel discussion on Examining Gendered Violence in Public Spaces

Moderator: Dipa Nag Chowdhury (Population Foundation of India)

Participants: Paula Banerjee (Calcutta University, MCRG), Ajailiu Niumai (University of Hyderabad), Meena Menon (Independent journalist)

To register fill this form: <https://forms.gle/PV9Qrq383qNs7ej87>