

INSTITUTE OF DEVELOPMENT STUDIES KOLKATA

Applications are invited for the following faculty positions:

(i) Professor (1 Post- Reserved for SC):

An eminent scholar holding a Ph.D. in any branch of social science with evidence of high quality published work in areas relevant to development studies and at least ten years of research/teaching experience in research institutes/ universities/ colleges, at least five years of which must be in a position of Associate Professor or above. Experiences of guiding doctoral research and handling externally funded research projects are desirable.

(ii) Associate Professor (1 Post- Reserved for SC):

Ph.D. in any branch of social science with evidence of high quality published work in areas relevant to development studies and at least eight years of research experience in an academic position equivalent to Assistant Professor. Experience in conducting field surveys and handling externally funded research project is desirable.

(ii) Assistant Professor (2 Posts- Both Reserved for SC):

Ph.D. in any branch of social science having a strong quantitative orientation (such as Economics, Statistics, Demography, Geography, Population Studies) with excellent academic record, and at least two high quality published papers in peer-reviewed journals in areas relevant to development studies. Must have cleared NET/SLET as per the UGC norm.

No age limit for Professor and Associate Professor, and the age limit for Assistant Professor is 45 years. Pay and allowances are in accordance with the state-aided universities of West Bengal. Appointments may be made on contractual or regular basis. Applications with full curriculum vitae may be sent by post to Director, Institute of Development Studies Kolkata, DD 27/D Salt Lake, Kolkata-700064, and by e-mail to idsk@idskmail.com before 6th April, 2023.
